there was a famine	ve·ha·ra·av
in the land	ba·a·rets
As the sons	u·ve·ne
of the prophets	han·ne·vee·eem
were sitting	yo·she·veem
at his feet	le·pha·naw

he said	vay·yo·mer
to his attendant	le·na·a·ro “ Put on	she·phot
pot	has·seer
the large	hag·ge·do·w·lah
and boil	u·vash·shel
some stew	na·zeed
for the sons	liv·ne
of the prophets ”	han·ne·vee·eem
went out	vay·ye·tse		2 Kings 4:39
One [of them]	e·chad
to	el
the field	has·sa·deh
to gather	le·laq·qet
herbs	o·rot
and he found	vay·yim·tsa vine	ge·phen
a wild	sa·deh
which he gathered	vay·laq·qet
from	mim·men·nu
gourds	paq·qu·ot
as many wild	sa·deh
	me·lo
as his garment [could hold	vig·do Then he came back	vay·ya·vo and cut them up	vay·phal·lach into	el

the pot	seer
of stew	han·na·zeed
though	kee
no one	lo
knew [what they were]	ya·da·u
And they poured it out	vay·yits·qu		2 Kings 4:40 for the men	la·a·na·sheem to eat	le·e·kho·wl
	vay·hee
but when they tasted	ke·a·khe·lam the stew	me·han·na·zeed
they	ve·hem·mah
cried out	tsa·a·qu
	vay·yo·me·ru “ There is death	ma·vet
in the pot	bas·seer
O man	eesh
of God ! ”	ha·e·lo·heem
And they could not	ve·lo ya·khe·lu
eat [it]	le·e·khol
Then Elisha said	vay·yo·mer		2 Kings 4:41
“ Get	u·qe·chu
some flour ”	qe·mach
He threw	vay·yash·lekh
it into	el

the pot	has·seer
and said	vay·yo·mer
“ Pour it out	tsaq
for the people	la·am
to eat ”	ve·yo·khe·lu
nothing	ve·lo
And there was	ha·yah
	da·var
harmful	ra
Now a man	ve·eesh		2 Kings 4:42
came	ba
from	mib·ba·al
Baal-shalishah	sha·li·shah vay·ya·ve
to the man	le·eesh
loaves	le·chem
from the first	bik·ku·reem
of twenty	es·reem
bread	le·chem
of barley	se·o·reem
ripe grain	ve·khar·mel
with a sack	be·tsiq·lo·no said Elisha	vay·yo·mer
“ Give	ten
it to the people	la·am

asked	vay·yo·mer		2 Kings 4:43
But his servant	me·sha·re·to “ How	mah
am I to set	et·ten
twenty loaves	zeh
before	liph·ne
a hundred	me·ah
men ? ”	eesh
“ Give	ten
“ for	kee
this is what	khoh
says :	a·mar
the LORD	YHVH
‘ They will eat	a·khol
and have [some] left over ’”	ve·ho·w·ter So he set [it]	vay·yit·ten		2 Kings 4:44 before them	liph·ne·hem and they ate	vay·yo·khe·lu and had [some] left over	vay·yo·w·ti·ru according to the word	kid·var
of the LORD	YHVH
Now Naaman	ve·na·a·man		2 Kings 5:1

the commander	sar
of the army	tse·va
of the king	me·lekh
of Aram	a·ram
was	ha·yah
man	eesh
a great	ga·do·wl
sight	liph·ne
in his master’s	a·do·naw
and highly regarded	u·ne·su pha·neem
for	kee
through him	vo
had given	na·tan
victory	te·shu·ah
to Aram	la·a·ram
man	ve·ha·eesh
And he was	ha·yah
a mighty	gib·bo·wr
of valor	cha·yil
[but he was] a leper	me·tso·ra
At this time the Arameans	va·a·ram		2 Kings 5:2
had gone	ya·tse·u
out in bands	ge·du·deem and had taken	vay·yish·bu
from the land	me·e·rets

of Israel	yis·ra·el
girl	na·a·rah
a young	qe·tan·nah
and she was serving	vat·te·hee liph·ne
wife	e·shet
Naaman’s	na·a·man
She said	vat·to·mer		2 Kings 5:3
her mistress	ge·vir·tah “ If only	a·cha·le
my master	a·do·nee
	liph·ne
would go to the prophet	han·na·vee who	a·sher
is in Samaria	be·sho·me·ro·wn
-	az
he would cure	ye·e·soph
him	o·to
of his leprosy ”	mits·tsa·ra·to
And Naaman went	vay·ya·vo		2 Kings 5:4
and told	vay·yag·ged
his master	la·do·naw
	le·mor
what	ka·zot
	ve·kha·zot
had said	dib·be·rah

the girl	han·na·a·rah
-	a·sher
said	vay·yo·mer		2 Kings 5:5
the king	me·lekh
“ Go now	lekh
”	bo
“ and I will send you with	ve·esh·le·chah a letter	se·pher
So [Naaman] departed	vay·ye·lekh taking	vay·yiq·qach
with him	be·ya·do
ten	e·ser
talents	kik·ke·re
of silver	khe·seph
six	ve·she·shet
thousand [shekels]	a·la·pheem
of gold	za·hav
and ten	ve·e·ser
sets	cha·lee·pho·wt
of clothing	be·ga·deem that he took	vay·ya·ve		2 Kings 5:6

And the letter	has·se·pher
stated :	le·mor
“ With	ve·at·tah
	ke·vo·w

this	haz·zeh
	e·le·kha
	hin·neh
I am sending	sha·lach·tee
-	e·le·kha
	et Naaman	na·a·man
my servant	av·dee
so that you may cure him	va·a·saph·to
of his leprosy ”	mits·tsa·ra·to
-	vay·hee		2 Kings 5:7
read	kiq·ro
When the king	me·lekh
-	et
the letter	has·se·pher
he tore	vay·yiq·ra
his clothes	be·ga·daw
and asked	vay·yo·mer

God	ha·e·lo·heem
“ Am I	a·nee
killing	le·ha·meet
and giving life	u·le·ha·cha·yo·wt
that	kee
this [man]	zeh
expects	sho·le·ach
me	e·lay
to cure	le·e·soph
	eesh
a leper ?	mits·tsa·ra·to kee
-	akh
Surely you can	de·u
	na
see	u·re·u
that	kee
is seeking a quarrel	mit·an·neh
he	hu
with me ! ”	lee
Now	vay·hee		2 Kings 5:8
heard	kish·mo·a
when Elisha	e·lee·sha
the man	eesh
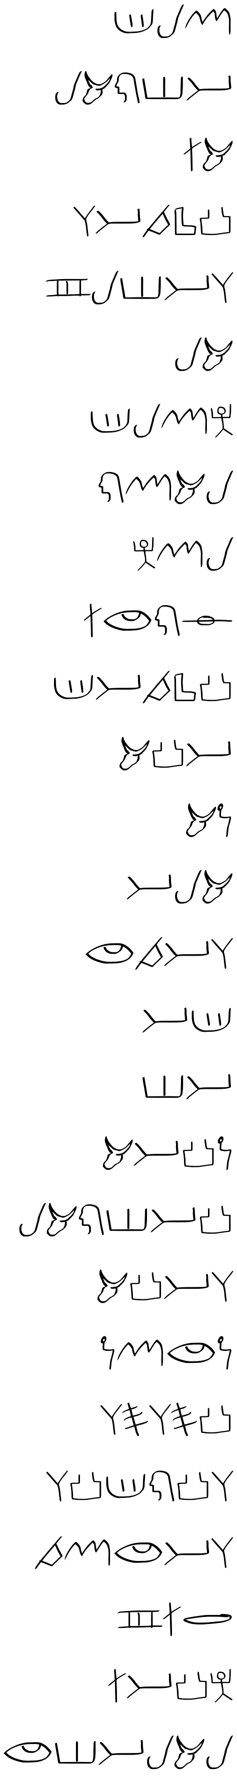
had torn	qa·ra



the king	me·lekh
-	et
he sent	vay·yish·lach
a message to	el
the king	ham·me·lekh
:	le·mor
“ Why	lam·mah
have you torn	qa·ra·ta
your clothes ?	be·ga·de·kha let [the man] come	ya·vo
Please	na
to me	e·lay
and he will know	ve·ye·da
that	kee
there is	yesh
a prophet	na·vee
in Israel ”	be·yis·ra·el came	vay·ya·vo	2 Kings 5:9
So Naaman	na·a·man
with his horses	be·su·so and chariots	u·ve·rikh·bo
and stood	vay·ya·a·mod
at the door	pe·tach
house	hab·ba·yit
of Elisha’s	le·e·lee·sha sent	vay·yish·lach		2 Kings 5:10

him	e·law
Then Elisha	e·lee·sha
a messenger	mal·akh
who said	le·mor
“ Go	ha·lo·wkh
and wash yourself	ve·ra·chats·ta seven	she·va
times	pe·a·meem
in the Jordan	bay·yar·den will be restored	ve·ya·shov and your flesh	be·sa·re·kha le·kha
and you will be clean ”	u·te·har angry	vay·yiq·tsoph		2 Kings 5:11
But Naaman	na·a·man
went away	vay·ye·lakh
saying	vay·yo·mer
	hin·neh
“ I thought that	a·mar·tee e·lay
he would surely come out	ye·tse ya·tso·w
stand	ve·a·mad
and call	ve·qa·ra
on the name	be·shem

his God	e·lo·haw
and wave	ve·he·neeph
his hand	ya·do
over	el
the spot	ham·ma·qo·wm
to cure	ve·a·saph
my leprosy	ham·me·tso·ra [Are] not	ha·lo		2 Kings 5:12
better	to·wv
the Abanah	ʾa·va·nah
and Pharpar	u·phar·par

Could I not	ha·lo
have washed	er·chats
in them	ba·hem
and been cleansed ? ”	ve·ta·ha·re·tee So he turned	vay·yi·phen
and went away	vay·ye·lekh
in a rage	be·che·mah approached him	vay·yig·ge·shu		2 Kings 5:13
Naaman’s servants, however	a·va·daw and said	vay·dab·be·ru
-	e·law

-	vay·yo·me·ru	𐤅𐤉𐤀𐤌𐤓𐤅
